

RCS Approved Course Intermediate Skills in Laparoscopic Surgery

20 – 21 October 2026

-  Expert led faculty team
-  Refine your essential laparoscopic techniques beyond the basics
-  Hands on clinical skills:
Ergonomics in laparoscopic surgery, laparoscopic suturing and intracorporeal knots, Nissen fundoplication, pyloroplasty and feeding gastrostomy, bowel anastomosis (handsewn and stapled techniques) and hernia repair.
-  Improve accuracy, coordination, and efficiency
-  Train in a safe, supportive simulation environment

Venue: Technical Skills Lab, Field House, Bradford
Royal Infirmary

Date: 20th and 21st October 2026

Fee: £600

Eligibility: ST3–6 trainees, SAS doctors, Trust grade doctors.

Previous laparoscopic experience required.

Open to all surgical trainees including Urology and Obs & Gynae trainees.

Deadline for bookings: 18.09.26

To apply for a place, please contact:
simulation.administration@bthft.nhs.uk
or scan the QR code

